'58 FORBIAN

Mr. and Miss Senior

FRANK KREVETSKI AND MARYLIN SHAVER

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS

FORBES JOINT HIGH SCHOOL

KANTNER, PENNSYLVANIA

Dedication

We, the students of the graduating class of 1958, are both honored and privileged to dedicate our yearbook to the man who has given us so much of his time and knowledge during our high school years.

We will always recall the cheery smile and kindly manner of Mr. Rodger when our thoughts turn back to our high school days.

We extend our most sincere thanks to you, Mr. John Rodger. May you continue to be an inspiration to the future students of Forbes High School as you were to us.

Our Supervising Principal

Mr. David Lichliter, our respected supervisor, came to our school as the coach and principal of Hooversville High in 1948 and at the time of consolidation in 1950 was appointed supervising principal of Forbes Joint system.

During Mr. Lichliter's eight years of supervision our school offered a well-balanced extra-curricular program and has striven for high scholastic achievement.

Through Mr. Lichliter's interest in community, church and school affairs, he has come to be a friend of all and our supervisor deserves the fullest praise and respect of every student and alumnus of Forbes.

Therefore, on behalf of all the students, we, the graduating class of 1958, take time out to thank him, for the wonderful job he has done and wish for him the happiest future possible.

Our High School Principal

To Miss Sank, our high school principal, we, the graduating class of 1958, express our sincere thanks and appreciation for all that she has done for us.

We became acquainted with Miss Sank in junior high school where some of the students received instruction in geography. After leaving junior high school we missed Miss Sank during our sophomore year but upon moving into our new building we found Miss Sank in the worthy position of our high school principal. She proved not only a good principal but also a friend in whom the students could confide. Many times we have received help and advice from Miss Sank which has indeed made our citizenship and moral standards better.

We know that her philosophy will help us as we go out into the world and for all these things we thank you, Miss Sank.

Our Class Officers

P. Dill, M. Shaver, A. Shaffer, W. Maneer

Looking back over the six years of hard work and sacrifice, fun and good times, the members of the class of 1958 find their record stacked with individual accomplishments and achievements that stretch almost uninterruptedly from the day they entered Forbes to their graduation.

During their high school days the seniors sampled a taste of all sorts of responsibilities, not shirking any of them. They leave the school now with cherished memories of good times, favorite teachers, amusing incidents, and grand classmates who made life at Forbes so wonderful. Theirs is now a life of future where they may show added responsibilities in the wider fields of their community and nation.

To our Alma Mater dear,
To the one we hold so true,
We, her children, raise our voice
In song and praise so rightly due.

She has guided us in learning,
And protected us in right.
We will always share the love
We bear with thee Forbes High.

The Junior Class

As we the Seniors of 1958 leave our place in the halls of our Alma Mater, we know this place will be ably filled by a very reliable successor, the Senior Class of 1959.

We extend our heartiest wishes to this class for the remainder of their school experiences and hope that they, too, may have pleasant memories of their high school days spent here at Forbes, just as we do.

Remember to do your best always, in all ways and you will surely be rewarded.

The Sophomore Class

Because we, the graduating class of Forbes High, were also sophomores along the way, we realize that the sophomore year can be a very important and decisive one in our high school career. By this time, we can usually form a fairly good opinion of what the possibilities of the classes are and what they will probably do in the future. After observing this class of sophomores, we can easily foresee that they will ably discharge their duties as upperclassmen. We are wishing for them the same happiness and pride in serving Forbes that we have enjoyed.

HILLSIDE-AERIAL

One of the important publications of our high school life is our newspaper, The Hillside-Aerial. The newspaper staff includes thirty-two capable students under their advisor, Mrs. Jones. The junior high journalism under the direction of Mrs. Leaf also contribute to the success of the paper. It is the purpose of this combined group to make the students become more familiar with their classmates, their instructors, and the activities of the school.

Bearing The Light

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In order to stimulate increased interest in and respect for outstanding scholarships in secondary high schools, school administrators formulated plans for the establishment of the National Honor Society. No honor conferred by the school excels that represented by this Society. It represents the fundamental objectives for which schools are instituted and gives recognition to those who have most nearly attained the desired ends. This Society looks upon education as a total product measured by the four dimensions of life: Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. We proudly present members of our chapter: Carol Escherich, Marylin Shaver, Judy Dinning, William Maneer, Pat Dill, Janet Barnett, Shirley Brown, Dorla Peden, Norma Peden, Patty Kolesko, Patti Stanko, Noreene Mostoller, Chester Keith, Eddie Croyle, Thomas Ringler, Lois Bruening, Mary Jane Dryburg, Becky Lambert, Errolene Haupt, Carol Kovack.

This group, under the sponsorship of Mr. Lawson, has worked especially hard at setting up a system of good-will not only within our school but also throughout the district and county. Many needy families were thankful for the council-sponsored food drive at Christmas. The milk and cookie snack after each home game resulted in compliments for our school plus better relations with other schools. One of the most memorable social occasions of the term was the annual "Maroon and White" day which will always be a day of tribute to our Alma Mater.

All of these things add up to create one of the most active and respected organizations at Forbes.

JUNIOR STUDENT COUNCIL

The junior council governs the junior high classes and is a definite aid to the senior c uncil by co-sponsoring the milk and cookie project and the beautiful Christma tree at the Yuletide. Their main project, however, concerned a magazine sale which was better than ever this term. The money obtained from the sale will be used for material for our school.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The seniors of 1958 presented their senior class play on November 14, 1957. The play was a three-act comedy entitled "Ten O'Clock Scholar" and was directed by Mrs. Trent. The play was very successful and the seniors were pleased with the way the public received it.

"Girl Shy," the junior play, was presented on April 25, 1957.

Behind the Scenes

The Voice of F. H. S.

The Forbes High School Radio Club, better known as "The Voice of F. H. S." consists of eighteen members, with Miss Elliott as advisor. The club is under the direction of Joe Pasquali, station engineer at W. V. S. C.

Periodically the members of the clubs prepare and present an educational and entertaining program directly from the Somerset station.

The purpose of this program is to provide an opportunity for our students to learn about radio productions and better acquaint our students with those from neighboring schools in our county.

"Springtime in Paris" the theme of our prom was carried out beautifully with the "Gay Paree" cafes and Eiffel Tower. The garden and patio added the touch of spring and the lovely colors which was needed to captivate the beauty of the evening. The "ahs" and "ohs" was the repayment for the work well done by the Class of '57.

JUDY DINNING

Personality, plus talent and appearance were traits considered when Judy Dinning was chosen as our Maple Princess. Judy has not only these qualities but displayed many more as she made her appearance at the Cochran Auditorium February 5, 1958.

Our princess brought more honor and prestige to our school when she became runner-up and Maid of Honor in the actual contest. After doing a reading entitled "How the Great Guest Came." Judy, along with four other finalists, took part in the personality part of the contest in which she, especially, displayed poise, charm, and personality. Judy who has green eyes and dark brown hair, looked radiant in a light orange colored gown.

FALL FESTIVAL QUEEN

The senior class proudly presented Patricia McGowan as Forbes representative at the annual Fall Festival at Somerset.

Patty, who has brown hair and blue eyes, made a lovely appearance in a light blue net gown at the coronation ceremony. Along with compliments on appearance, comments were also made about the personality and charm Patty displayed before the crowd.

BEST ATHLETE

Each year a boy is chosen from the Senior Class who seems to most nearly represent the best all around athlete of the class. The athlete named to this honor for the graduating class of 1958 is Frank Krevetski. Frank has been outstanding in all the high school sports including baseball, basketball, and football.

FOOTBALL

25 . . . 20 . . . 15 . . . 10 . . . 5 . . . TOUCHDOWN! Yes, Forbes completed another football series, carrying the pigskin through a season which we consider the best ever, with eight wins and a lone defeat.

After many rugged practices in all types of weather, our boys came through with so much determination and enthusiasm, that a crowd of F. H. S. rooters went home from eight games with satisfaction written all over their faces.

Consequently, our respect and honor goes to our team of well trained fellows who fought hard every minute, every game, making football for 1957-1958 a thrill-packed and very successful season.

BASEBALL

Spring is here with the robin and flower. You may be thinking that the young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love; however in the case of the boys at F. H. S., it is quite a different story. Yes, the boys at Forbes busily start digging in the cellar for a battered baseball and glove. Lugging the bat over his shoulder, our boy is on his way, with a dreamy look in his eyes, to the old ballground.

Is this love? ? ? Oh, yes . . . for baseball! ! !

. . . . Hand In Hand

We, the graduates of 1958 would like to express our deepest thanks and sincere appreciation to all who helped make our stay in school the best years of our lives: first, our parents who gave their most to help us do our best, then our teachers who guided us with the utmost patience, and lastly, our patrons who worked hand in hand with our class and helped us obtain the best education possible. We hope that in the future we will prove to be a group that you will be proud of in the building of better schools, better communities, and a better America.
